

Disciplinary Committee

The Authority's Disciplinary Committee has powers delegated as provided for in Regulation 9 and 12 of the Fire Services (Discipline) Regulations 1985.

This requires the Committee to receive personal information about employees which cannot be made publicly available under Access to Information and Data Protection legislation. Consequently the information cannot be released.

The Fire Authority would like to apologise to you for any inconvenience that the inavailability of this information may cause you.